39TH ANNUAL CHICAGO MUSIC AWARDS (CMA) postponed to February 28, 2021- will combine best of 2019 & 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHICAGO (December 7 2020) - The virtual 39th Annual Chicago Music Awards (CMA) is scheduled for February 28, 2020 and experts in the Chicagoland music industries are now nominating the best of 2019/2020 in various categories of music.

The CMA is the only awards event that in its 39-year history have been honoring and recognizing the significant contributions of notable Chicagoans and their impact on the music and entertainment industry around the globe.

The Chicago Music Awards nominees are selected by elite members of the industry, such as performing artists, musicians, producers, promoters, DJs, record labels/stores, engineers, songwriters, entertainment media, radio disc-jockeys and event venue owners.

Because of the Pandemic the nominations period is covering January 2019 to December 2020. The experts officially started nomination submission December 5th, 2020 through December 31st, 2020 at email chicagomusicawards@gmail.com. Ballot can be obtained at www.chicagomusicawards.org.

Martin's International expresses special thanks to our legacy and current sponsors; NBC 5 Chicago/Telemundo TV, Rogers Park Fruit Market, LaFruteria, Inc., All United Imports, Old World Market, Kingston Mines Blues Club, Wallace Funeral Home, African Spectrum, Rasta Love Punch, Golden Krust Bakery, The International Festival of Life (IFOL), IRAWMA, The Jerk, Seafood & Vegan Fest (JSVFest), and others for making the CMA a success over the years.

Businesses and organizations are invited to brand their name/product/service as a general sponsor, category sponsor on our virtual broadcast, and/or to advertise in our online magazine.

$5 donation tickets for the virtualCMA broadvast are now available at www.chicagomusicawards.org.
